ARTIS—NAPLES, THE BAKER MUSEUM ANNOUNCES CHANGES TO 2022-23 SEASON EXHIBITION DATES

NAPLES, FL (November 8, 2022) – Artis—Naples, The Baker Museum announced today changes to the previously announced exhibition schedule for the 2022-23 season. Given the impact of Hurricane Ian on the Southwest Florida community, the dates of some exhibitions in The Baker Museum have been adjusted.

After careful consideration, Naples Collects 2022-23, previously scheduled to open on December 17, will now open on March 4 and remain on display through October 15. This exhibition will share the most inspiring and engaging art from local private collections, allowing visitors to view some of the Naples community's most prized possessions. A combination of respect for the exhibition's lenders, some of whom are dealing with complicated recovery efforts following Hurricane Ian, as well as the specific schedule requirements of the museum's other touring exhibitions, drove the decision to postpone the exhibition's opening.

The popular Helen Frankenthaler: Late Works, 1990-2003 exhibition, currently on view and previously scheduled to close on November 27, has been extended through February 5. This landmark exhibition showcases the last phase of Frankenthaler's prolific career with 30 soak stain paintings which depict the artist's interest in the relationship between landscape and abstraction. Artis—Naples is grateful to the Helen Frankenthaler Foundation for generously allowing the exhibition's extension by more than two more months so that more visitors can view these significant works.

THE BAKER MUSEUM

The Baker Museum is one of the foremost fine art museums in Southwest Florida. The museum hosts several traveling exhibitions annually to complement installations of works from its permanent collection. Comprising more than 4,000 objects, the museum's broad holdings of 20th- and 21st-century art reflect the generosity and commitment of area collectors. Of particular strength are The Baker Museum's collections of American and Mexican modern art, including significant gifts from the collection of Olga Hirshhorn.

With more than two decades of collecting and exhibiting, the museum is dedicated to stewardship and scholarship from both its growing permanent collection and outside sources. At the same time, The Baker Museum seeks out the best traveling exhibitions from the leading arts institutions in the world—including recently the Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art and the Smithsonian Institutions—to enrich the Southwest Florida community. In fall 2020, Artis—Naples celebrated the opening of an 18,000-square-foot expansion of The Baker Museum, designed by Weiss/Manfredi Architecture/Landscape/Urbanism, that created new spaces for multidisciplinary exploration and social interaction.
